ght for the second and third
t. Wasatch led by 2 points, 10 going into the second arter. It looked like Wasatch l the game already decided.

Morgan came out in the nd period, and pressed. a 1-3-1 press, the Trojans ced 3 turnovers in a row, and denly they were back into the ne.

David Eaton, picked up 2 fouls 2nd period, plus the one in 1st and was benched.
Senior Lynn Stevens

the start of the final period, and promptly scored, tying the game at 43-43.

The Wasps were unable to answer for a return basket, but a foul sent Casper to the line, and put Wasatch out by 2 points.

Both teams, then put on a defensive struggle. Morgan used the same 1-3-1 trap that proved effective for them at the start of the second quarter. But fouls were the Trojans' doom, as the Wasps would miss a shot, but would be fouled while shooting.

the game was the good defense the Wasps showed in the final moments of the game. Wasatch played a man-to-man hustle the last quarter, which slowed down their offense.

Coach Nordfelt said that the team has been a team in all respects. When the team is shooting the team is good. When it's bad, it's bad.

The Wasps were led by the scoring of Troy Casper who had 19 points. Morgan's high shooter was Mark Thachery, who scored 14 points.

Casper goes to the basket for 2 points. Casper the Wasps in scoring with 19 points. The held a 12 point lead after the end of the first period, but had it cut down, and tied in the 4th period.
